Children's Share Campaign Will Send Messages of Hope to Patients During Holidays

The holidays are a time of joy and hope—of togetherness and family. But it can also be a difficult time, especially for children who must celebrate from their hospital beds. This year, at least 1,280 children will spend their holidays at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. But you can brighten their day with one simple action.

Our marketing department is collecting messages from our employees and the greater community to share with our patients during the last weeks of the year. Our goal is to gather 1,280 messages—one for each patient staying at Children's—by Dec. 15.

To share your message, just visit ShareWithChildrens.org. During the last few weeks of the year, we'll broadcast your messages through the TVs in all three campuses—just in time to brighten a child's holiday.

We've created a special video to accompany the campaign. We're hoping to increase the views of the video on www.youtube.com/user/childrenshospitals, so please watch it from home and share the ShareWithChildrens.org link with your friends and family. The Verizon Foundation is matching every YouTube view of the "Share" video with a $1 donation for Children's.

This video was filmed in one day, with one camera, at Children's at Scottish Rite. You'll see patients like Frances – in a bright pink bow – who's traveled from Augusta for more than a dozen surgeries at Children's.

Let children across the hospital system know you're thinking of them. Visit ShareWithChildrens.org to watch and share your message of hope today.

Check out some of the heartwarming messages we've already received:

"My grandson is a CHOA alum, and you will be, too. Never give up hope!" – Bud

"To the bravest kids the world has ever seen. You fight battles to the fullest and continue to love like no other. Merry Christmas & God Bless" – Kristin

"We all celebrated Christmas 2009 at CHOA's NICU. Even though we don't know you – we pray for each of you, DAILY!! You are LOVED!!!" – The Berry's

"Forget Batman, Spiderman, or anyone else--you are the true superhero. Have an amazing holiday season." – Kelsey

"There are so many people out here who are behind you, support and CHEER for you! You are NEVER alone! Sent with love" – Marcus
