Donate Food for Children's Families

Children's provides meal assistance to parents/guardians of patients who do not have the financial means to purchase meals is an important service to offer, so parents can receive necessary nutrition while their child is in the hospital setting. To support this effort, the Children's Social Work departments coordinate a food donation program and welcome contributions.

Currently, the Social Work departments at Egleston, Scottish Rite and Hughes Spalding are in need of food donations for meal bags for families. Suggested foods include:

- Single-serving spaghetti/noodle cups
- Microwave cups of soup
- Easy Mac N Cheese single servings
- Single-servings instant oatmeal (add water)
- Breakfast bars
- Granola bars
- Fruit/applesauce cups
- Pre-packaged peanut butter/cheese crackers
- Small bags of pretzels
- Cookies
- Crackers
- Easy open cans of tuna and chicken

If you are interested in donating items, contact the Social Work departments at Egleston, ext. 56250, Scottish Rite, ext. 52010 or Hughes Spalding, ext 59520.
