Thank You for Three Great Days

Recently, a 13-year-old patient named Blake spent three days at Children's at Egleston. Every day of his stay, he visited The Voice and became fast friends with The Voice Coordinator Wendy Threatt. Blake told her about his love of sports, and how he hopes to play football for Buford High when he starts there next year. He also told her about his love of radio and his dream to one day work in radio.

Despite spending 72 hours in the hospital, at the end of his stay he told Wendy: "Thank you for three great days."

Does it get any better than that?
