Children's Employee Choir Performed National Anthem at Georgia Force Game

On Friday, June 17, the Children's Employee Choir performed the National Anthem at the Georgia Force game.

"It was really a great moment to be out on the field in front of maybe 2,000 people wearing our Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Employee Choir polos," says Cindy Burrell, Clinical Educator for Central Staffing Office at Children's at Egleston and Choir Coordinator. "We were so proud to represent our organization!"

The choir was met with a particularly loud bout of applause when it wrapped up its a cappella performance with a difficult three-part harmony, which included several high notes. After performing, the members of the choir each received a fist bump from one of the Force players, and then got to cheer the team on to victory.

Georgia Force tickets are available through the At Your Service Concierge.
