

Physician Education

Opportunities and Resources

Recognizing physicians as lifelong learners, Children's Healthcare of Atlanta strives to provide them with distinguished educational opportunities as well as effective resources.

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION (CME) OPPORTUNITIES

In-house Conferences

Various subspecialty groups—such as orthopaedics, general surgery and Emergency department—hold regularly occurring conferences to discuss management of specific cases and to share updated information pertinent to their subspecialty.

Online Modules

Journal activities, in addition to grand rounds and patient care conferences, are offered online for CME credit, free of charge. Visit www.choa.org/cme for details about available topics and how to complete the Web-streamed modules to receive credit.

Hospital-based Conferences

- Grand Rounds at Children's at Egleston
7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m., Wednesdays
- Tuesday Mornings at Children's at Scottish Rite
7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m., Tuesdays

National/Regional Conferences

- New Horizons in Pediatrics (for general pediatricians)
- Cleft Lip and Palate Symposium
- Pediatric Orthopaedic Seminar
- Echocardiography Conference
- Others as needed and requested

CME Dinners

We offer six to seven CME dinners annually in metro Atlanta; these are designed for practicing physicians in the community. Visit www.choa.org/cme for a schedule, which includes information about locations, topics and speakers.

RESOURCES

Medical Libraries

The medical libraries at each campus provide valuable resources for medical staff, including:

- Print and electronic journal (more than 1,000 titles) collections
- Reference collections of medical textbooks
- Internal and external access to multiple databases: OVID, MDConsult, EBSCOHost, PubMed and Up-to-Date
- Literature searches as requested
- Database search instruction by appointment or class
- Interlibrary loan service for books, journal articles or audiovisual materials not available in the libraries

To learn more about these resources or services, contact Elaine Harbin at elaine.harbin@choa.org or 404-785-2152.

Physician Speakers Bureau

The Speakers Bureau sponsors the Children's physicians who are interested in speaking about their area of expertise to clinical groups at other hospitals throughout Georgia. New speakers are welcome. Contact Alesia Winters at 404-785-7016 for more information.

Physician Portal

The Children's Medical Staff can log into the physician portal from anywhere to access the following:

- Patient teaching materials in English and Spanish
- Updates from Chief Medical Officer Dan Salinas, M.D.
- Class registration
- Online medical library resources
- Individual CME records
