

RELEASE DATE: 10.26.2007 | LOCATION: DOWNTOWN/ MIDTOWN /BUCKHEAD | ORGANIZATION: ATLANTA CITY COUNCIL

Concerned Black Clergy Salute to Black Mothers Luncheon Honoring Metro Women for the 19th Year

Atlanta City Council President Lisa Borders among Honorees

Concerned Black Clergy of Metropolitan Atlanta

Honorees are:

- President's Award - Lisa Borders, President Atlanta City Council
- Religion Award - Rev. Jeanette Butler, God's In Charge Ministries
- Education Award - Youlanda Upkins, ECDC Head Start
- Community Service Award - Julia Jones, Children's Health Care at Hughes Spalding, Vice President of Operations
- Business Award - Diane Powell-Larche', Co-owner, Foot Solutions at Cascade Rd. & Larche' Communications
- Unsung Shero - Alice Browner
- Distinguished Merit Award - Rep. Pamela Stephenson, Chair, Board of Trustees, The Fulton-Dekalb Hospital Authority

MC - Shaunya Chavis

Rev. Darrell D. Elligan is president of Concerned Black Clergy of Metropolitan Atlanta.

Jada Dawkins-Hudspeth is chair of the luncheon and Juanita S. Love is co-chair.

Salute To Black Mothers Celebration - Black Mothers Lighting the Pathway

12 noon, Saturday, October 27th

Tickets are $35 and can be obtained by contacting the Concerned Black Clergy of Metropolitan Atlanta at 404-755-4900 or cbcatl@bellsouth.net

Hyatt Regency Hotel Atlanta
265 Peachtree Street NE
Atlanta, Georgia 30303
(404) 577-1234

Concerned Black Clergy's mission is to provide leadership, advocacy and service to the community.

See attachment below for detailed information about the event and Atlanta City Council President Lisa Borders.

Downloads:

cbcannualluncheon2007_3.doc

Contact Info

Contact Name: Dexter Chambers
Company: Atlanta City Council
Phone: 404-330-6309
Cell: 404-392-0159
E-mail: dchambers@atlantaga.gov

