

Happy Holidays

Dear member of the Children's family,

Thank you for your unwavering support and your dedication throughout 2011. Your commitment to making a difference is what makes Children's a special place.

To celebrate and say thanks, we've enclosed a couple small goodies: a $25 Kroger gift card (good for groceries or fuel) and a two-for-one pass to ride Macy's Pink Pig. Also, be sure to check out some of the fun annual holiday events benefiting Children's.

Best wishes to you and yours for a joyous holiday season and a happy and healthy new year.

All aboard the Pink Pig

Priscilla the Pink Pig rides again. Children's Healthcare of Atlanta and Macy's are offering a special, two-for-one discount coupon for you to ride the Pink Pig at Macy's Lenox Square. This beloved Atlanta tradition is open from Saturday, Oct. 29, to Sunday, Jan. 1, 2012.

31st Annual Children's Christmas Parade

The holiday season officially begins with the 31st annual Children's Christmas Parade, Saturday, Dec. 3. Join us along Peachtree Street to get a first-hand look at the award-winning bands and dance groups, large helium balloons, festive holiday floats, and of course, Santa and Mrs. Claus. Hosted by WSB-TV, Channel 2 (ABC), the parade will air live from 10:30 a.m. to noon. Visit www.choa.org/parade for information on bleacher seat tickets.

Christmas on Peachtree

Christmas on Peachtree, the largest indoor Christmas festival in the Southeast, is Friday, Nov. 25, through Saturday, Dec. 31, at 200 Peachtree Street in the former Macy's building in downtown Atlanta. The event is a 70,000-square-foot mix of family-friendly festivities, food and shopping. See the stunning Symphony of Lights, a music and light show in our Grand Atrium; let the kids play in the Cartoon Network Children's Adventure Area, which includes a life-size toy train; and shop to your heart's content in the Gifts of Atlanta Retail Village. Proceeds from the festival benefit Children's.
