Children's Honors 2012 Hope and Will Winners

This year's Hope and Will Award winners gathered with the Executive Team for a luncheon to celebrate the 2012 Hope and Will Awards, Wednesday, March 13. Each year, the Hope and Will Awards luncheon honors employees, nominated by their peers, for being shining examples of the Children's Values. This year, Children's honored eight employees for their commitment to Children's, our patients and to each other.

The 2012 Hope and Will Award winners are: Ed Callaway, Supply Chain Technician, Mail Services; Vince Edge, Client Access Design Engineer, IS&T; Michael Goodman, Orthopaedic Technician, Emergency; Sylvia Hampton, Field Services Technician, IS&T; Linda Harris, Advice Line Nurse, Call Center; Diane Krawczyk, Unit Secretary, Day Surgery; Catherine Shields, Child Life Specialist; and Daniel Thompson, Coordinator, Government Affairs.

"Hope and Will are such a special part of the Children's family, because they exemplify the spirit of our Mission and our people. And as Hope and Will award winners, these employees embody the Children's Values," said Donna Hyland, CEO. "To their peers and patients, these winners are a special symbol of what makes Children's great."

This year's winners came from all over of the Children's System, but they all had one thing in common: They are known for going above and beyond for their patients and coworkers. Make time to send a note to this year's winners, and congratulate them on their award.

Employees can nominate a coworker for the 2013 Hope and Will Awards throughout the year. Winners are selected quarterly as well as annually. Nominate an exceptional employee today.
